

Vertical Capital Income Fund (VCIF) Announces Results of Shareholder Meeting, Renewal of Line of Credit, and Estimated Sources of August Distribution

August 31, 2021

DALLAS, Aug. 31, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Vertical Capital Income Fund (NYSE: VCIF) announced today the results of the 2021 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the fund held on August 27, 2021. Shareholders of the fund voted to re-elect as a trustee T. Neil Bathon, who currently serves as an Independent Trustee.

Vertical Capital Income Fund ("Fund") also announced its credit facility's amendment, restatement and renewal, which is overseen by the Fund's adviser Oakline Advisors. The Fund has again entered into a $35 million credit facility now set to mature in July 2022, secured by the VCIF loan portfolio. The Fund currently has $2.0 million outstanding on its credit facility.

Under the amended terms of the credit facility, outstanding balances generally will accrue interest at a variable rate equal to the Prime Rate plus 50 basis points with an interest rate floor of 3.90%. NexBank remains the lender.

"We are pleased to mark these important milestones for the [Fund] and its continued work to meet the goals of our investors. Trustee T. Neil Bathon has been integral to the Fund's success for many years and we are pleased he will continue to guide VCIF into the future. We also are pleased to announce the renewal and amendment of our credit facility that will continue to meet our responsible borrowing needs over the next year, and expect to use the facility as needed to manage capital needs for acquisitions and other general purposes," said Michael D. Cohen, President of the Fund.

Lastly, as previously announced, the Fund paid a monthly distribution of $0.0789 per share to all shareholders of record as of August 19, 2021, pursuant to the Fund's managed distribution plan (the "Plan").

As a general matter, the amount of the Fund's distributable income depends on the aggregate gains and losses realized by the Fund during the entire year. Distributions may consist of net investment income, capital gains and return of capital but the character of these distributions cannot be determined until after the end of the Fund's fiscal year. However, under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and the terms of the Plan, the Fund may be required to indicate the source of each distribution to its shareholders. The following table sets forth the estimated sources of the current distribution, and the cumulative distributions paid during the 2021 fiscal year to date from the sources indicated in the table. All amounts are expressed on a per share basis and as a percentage of the distribution amount.

Source	Current Distribution Per Share	Breakdown of Current Distribution Per Share (%)	Fiscal YTD Cumulative Distributions Per Share	Breakdown of Fiscal YTD Cumulative Distributions Per Share (%)
Net Investment Income	$0.0301	38.15%	$0.4083	39.70%

(1) You should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of this distribution or from the terms of the Fund's Distribution Policy.

(2) The amounts and sources of distributions reported in this 19(a) Notice are only estimates and are not being provided for tax reporting purposes. The actual amounts and sources of the amounts for tax reporting purposes will depend upon the Fund's investment experience during the remainder of its fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations. The Fund will send you a Form 1099-DIV for the calendar year that will tell you how to report these distributions for federal income tax purposes.

(3) The Fund estimates that it has distributed more than its income and net realized capital gains; therefore, a portion of your distribution may be a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income."

² The annualized current distribution rate is the cumulative distribution rate annualized as a percentage of the Fund's NAV as of July 31, 2021.

³ Cumulative total return at NAV is the percentage change in the Fund's NAV for the period from the beginning of its fiscal year to July 31, 2021 including distributions paid and assuming reinvestment of those distributions.

The Plan will be subject to periodic review by the Board, and the Board may amend the terms of the Plan including amending the annual rate of payment or may terminate the Plan at any time without prior notice to the Fund's shareholders. The Fund's distribution rate may be affected by numerous factors, including changes in realized and projected market returns, Fund performance, and other factors. There can be no assurance that an unanticipated change in market conditions or other unforeseen factors will not result in a change in the Fund's distribution rate at a future time. The amendment or termination of the Plan could have an adverse effect on the market price of the Fund's shares. The public health crises caused by the COVID-19 outbreak may exacerbate other pre-existing political, social and economic risks to which the Fund is exposed. The duration of the COVID-19 outbreak and its effects cannot be determined with certainty. In order to comply with the requirements of Section 19 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, and an exemptive order received by the Fund from the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Fund will provide its shareholders of record on each distribution date with a 19(a) Notice and issue an accompanying press release disclosing the sources of its distribution payment when a distribution includes anything other than net investment income. This information will be forthcoming later this month.

The amounts and sources of distributions reported in 19(a) Notices are only estimates and are not provided for tax reporting purposes. The actual amounts and sources of the amounts for tax reporting purposes will depend upon the Fund's investment experience during its full fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations. The Fund will send shareholders a Form 1099-DIV for the calendar year that will tell them how to report these distributions for federal income tax purposes. Information on the Fund's 19(a) Notices, if any, can be found at www.vertical-incomefund.com. The final determination of the source and tax characteristics of all distributions in 2021 will be made after the end of the year.

Shares of closed-end funds often trade at a discount from their net asset value. The market price of Fund shares may vary from net asset value based on factors affecting the supply and demand for shares, such as Fund distribution rates relative to similar investments, investors' expectations for future distribution changes, the clarity of the Fund's investment strategy and future return expectations, and investors' confidence in the underlying markets in which the Fund invests. Fund shares are subject to investment risk, including possible loss of principal invested. No Fund is a complete investment program and you may lose money investing in a Fund. An investment in the Fund may not be appropriate for all investors. Before investing, prospective investors should consider carefully the Fund's investment objective, risks, charges and expenses.
